

Beth David Congregation amalgamated with B'nai Israel Congregation in 1960 and with Beth Am Congregation in 1977, resulting in one of the most dynamic Egalitarian Conservative congregations in Toronto. Each of the three congregations that make up Beth David B'nai Israel Beth Am ('Beth David') today began in a similar fashion, with a desire to provide a place of worship, study and gathering for a group of young people new to an area where none of this existed. Services began in private homes, in stores, and eventually in permanent homes and then synagogue edifices.

Beth David B'nai Israel Beth Am is a vibrant, family-oriented Egalitarian Conservative synagogue affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism in Toronto, Ontario. The Congregation comprises a wonderful mix of singles and families, and the ruach is very evident on all festive occasions including Shabbat and festivals. We hope that you will explore the many ways to Participate, Learn and Grow at Beth David!
